Thomas Nelson Page on the Negro Question.

In the March McClure's there is a note worthy article on the Negro Question by Thomas Nelson Page. Under the title of "The Great American Question—The Special Pleas of a Southerner," he deals with the subject in a distinguished manner, as the following extracts from his introduction show:

There are some things so well understood by those who know the negroes, as to appear to them almost truisms. For example:

That the white race is superior to the negro race; not accidentally, and because of superior training, but inherently and fundamentally.

That in certain things negroes differ widely among themselves; for example, in temper, character, training, manner, temperament. But that in certain respects, all, or nearly all negroes, have the same race characteristics, as Indians, Chinese, Caucasians, and other races have them.

That the negroes understand by "social equality," for the most part, one thing only: the right to stand with white women on precisely the same ground as that on which white men stand with them.

That there is a wide difference at present between the point of view of the great body of the Northerners and the entire body of Southerners as to the negro: in this, that Northerners espouse the cause of the negroes as a race, but dislike negroes individually while Southerners do not dislike negroes individually, but opposethem as a race. And that this difference is due to conditions and not to basic principles.

There is another vital fact not generally known to Southerners: that one of the chief causes, if not the chief cause at present, of the feeling at the North in favor of the negro is the violence so often directed against negroes at the South. There is quite as much violence against them in some other parts of the country, in proportion to the colored population, as at the South; but for reasons not necessary to discuss here, this is not taken into account. The brunt of the censure falls on the South, and the South on every account, but especially for its own sake, ought to put a stop to it with relentless hand, or else make it clear to the rest of the world why it is not done.

The Revolt of the Mollycoddle.

From the New York World.

The mollycoddle has turned. The officious President Eliot has countered on the vigorous President Roosevelt and still lives, unbruised and unshaken.

"I may add that I do not in the least object to a sport because it is rough," declares President Roosevelt in a speech before the Harvard Union.

"Rowing, baseball, lacrosse, track and field games, hockey, football, are all of them good. Moreover, it is in my mind simple nonsense, a mere confession of weakness, to desire to abolish a game because tendencies show themselves or practise grow up which prove that the game ought to be reformed."

"Athletes are good, especially in their rougher forms, because they tend to develop courage."

"In spite of the changed rules," remarks President Eliot quietly in his annual report, "the spirit of the game (football), however, remains essentially the same. It is properly described by the adjective 'fierce'—a term which is generally applied to the game by its own advocates. It therefore remains an undesirable game for gentlemen to play or for multitudes of spectators to watch. No game is fit for college uses in which recklessness in causing or suffering serious bodily injuries promotes efficiency and is so taught and held up for admiration. Football is the least valuable of all college sports. As for the continuous, pumped cheering during good and bad baseball playing alike, it is absolutely unnatural and has no counterpart in the contents of real life. On the part of the spectators it is a weak hysterical and utterly ineffective demonstration."

The two presidents seem to be of diametrically opposite minds. But one happens to be president of Harvard university and the other President of the United States. President Roosevelt visited Cambridge to discomfit mollycoddles and officious authorities. What would he think of President Eliot if he went to the White House to declaim against continuous, pumped cheering and the hysterical and ineffective results it produces in politicians?

Enjoy Eating.

Good Digestion Can be Readily Gained with Mi-o-na Stomach Tablets.

It is torment to look upon a tempting dinner and realize that to eat freely means distress and suffering.

Let us tell you how you can enjoy eating, so that the heartiest meals will set well and cause no pain, distress or uncomfortable feeling of fullness.

If you cannot eat and enjoy three good, hearty, satisfying meals a day without any feeling of discomfort, your stomach is weak and needs the strength which Mi-o-na stomach tablets will give it. You cannot afford to delay treatment, for the longer you allow the digestive organs to be weak the harder it will be to get help.

The remarkable curative and strengthening power of Mi-o-na is attested by the guarantee, which Crenshaw & Young give with every 50c box. "We return the money if Mi-o-na fails to cure."

If you find that eating well-cooked and properly chewed food is followed by heaviness and load on stomach, by bloating, gulping of acids and wind, by distress, nervousness, headache, trouble to sleep, or any other symptoms of disordered or weak stomach, you should begin the use of Mi-o-na at once. It is guaranteed by one of the best known druggists in Lexington to cure all disorders of the stomach, or cost nothing. A guarantee like this means a good deal.—For sale by Crenshaw & Young.

Independence Examiner:—Enough has been printed about the new building for the supreme court at Jefferson City to arouse attention and the matter should by no means be allowed to drop now. The legislature should go to the bottom of this business and bring before the public a detailed statement of the expenses of this building. The commission not only expended the $187,000 for the building but more than $200,000 in addition which comes up as deficiency. It develops that the board in charge composed of State officials seems to know very little about the matter and that the roof fell in twice and the plans were changed. The legislature should take the matter up at this session and place the commission right before the people.

Fair Warning.

Don't wait until the best varieties of Trees and Plants are sold. Send in your order now and have them reserved. Need not pay in advance. Fine stock of Peaches and Cumberlans (black) raspberries the largest and best. See price list on another page. Special rates on large orders.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism. Not a remedy that will straighten the stunted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony overts back to flesh again. That is impossible. I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made perfected, dependable prescription. Without at last ingredient, I successfully treated many, any case of Rheumatism; but now, at last, I humbly urge all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular acids, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve in pass away under the action of this remedy as only as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes easily pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no ailment—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend Ruler an Expert Cook.

Habibullah Khan is ameer of Afghanistan. His principal amusement is cooking, and this is general with all other men of the country. It is said that he can cook better than those appointed for the work. Fridays are usually devoted to this amusement, all his retinue helping in the preparation of the viands, which, when cooked, they sit down and eat together.

Tax on Irish Bachelors.

It is surely the function of the state to encourage rather than to penalize a high birth rate. A bachelor tax exists in many countries, if that course be thought too extreme, a differentiation between bachelors and men of family in the income tax would at least tend in that direction.—Dublin Freeman's Journal.

Repatee Among Wits.

John G. Saxe, the poet, and Oliver Wendell Holmes were talking about brain fever, when Mr. Saxe remarked: "I once had a severe attack of brain fever myself." "How could you have brain fever?" asked Dr. Holmes, smiling. "It is only strong brains that have brain fever." "How did you find that out?" asked Saxe.

Trade Mark of a Man.

Swearing as a habit is the mark of the imbecile, the vulgarian or the blackguard. But there is something wrong with the man from whose lips there never has sprung an oath unstudied and unexpected, and resonant with the full strength of resentment, indignation or the note of strife.—New York Mail.

Set in Her Way.

Dot took her city cousin out to the hen house to get the eggs, but the speckled hen was on her nest, determined to set, and Dot did not dare to take her off. "We can't get these eggs, Bert," she said, "for old Speckle is awful setty and she is so cross I'm afraid of her."

The News—No Pure Drug Cough Cure Laws would be needed, if all Cough Cures were like Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure—and has been for 20 years. The National law now requires that if any poisons enter into a cough mixture, it must be printed on the label or package. For this reason mothers, and others, should insist on Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Refuse to accept any other. Sold by Dr. Silverstone's drug store. 3-2ml

Warrensburg Star:—From Lafayette comes that old Democratic warhorse J. H. Christy. He is serving with distinction.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
